

Happy New Year from the SBWGA 2023 Board of Directors! We are looking forward to a fabulous 2023 season!

New Members: I want to welcome our seven new members to SBWGA: Melanie Bassham, Gayle Covey, Carol Dolian, Becky Ochsner, Kim Larsen, Nancy Prentiss, Carol Sturman and two returning members after some time away: Vickie Butler and Elaine Salladay. We are so happy to have you part of our membership.

Congratulations! Congratulations to Helen Graham, winner of Ace of Aces (gross) with a gross score of 74 and to Marie Kahng, winner of Ace of Aces (net) with a net score of 72. Congratulations also to Connie Culley on her Hole in One! Connie had a hole-in-one on December 19th on Catalina #3. She used her 4 hybrid from 125 yards.

By-laws change approved – During our December 6th General Meeting a change to our by-laws was approved by our membership. This was a recommendation from our annual financial review. The additional words below were added to Article XII – Budget and Finances: This review shall consist of 1) review of documentation for and approvals of significant transactions, 2) review of bank statements and reconciliations and 3) review of documentation for membership and sponsorship income.

Standing Rules Updated – The new board met on December 6th and approved updated standing rules. The updated rules have been posted to our website and can be found here. Below are a summary of the changes:

1. Reflect the process change for membership registration via the AGA website
2. Changed our honorary membership to no charge membership (in the past we charged a fee of $10 for the handbook). Handbooks are paid with sponsorship funds.
3. Updated the TPD email account in several places in the document. The new email address is: TPD.SBWGA18@gmail.com
4. Updated the tournaments:
 - a. Solheim will be held every even year
 - b. 3 Jills and a Jack will be held every odd year
 - c. Removed the Sadie Hawkins Tournament
 - d. Changed the SaddleBrooke Womens Classic to one tournament each year (instead of playing all three courses each year). SaddleBrooke will host by in 2023.
