

Minutes of the SBWGA-18 General Meeting April 3, 2018

Venetia Lewis called the meeting to order at 1 PM. She shared an excerpt from Golf is Not a Game of Perfect.

The February 2018 Financials were approved as posted as were the March 6, 2018 General Meeting Minutes.

Proposed changes to the SBWGA-18 By Laws together with two new By Laws have been posted for review by the membership. They will be voted on at the May General Meeting.

Cheryl Nugent, HOA1 Fitness Center Coordinator, gave a PowerPoint presentation on Fitness for Golf where she stressed the importance of strengthening our core muscles. She also described various fitness classes offered to help each of us achieve this goal.

Dede Crowder introduced our two guests from Temperature Control, a locally owned heating and air conditioning company established in 1982 that is one of our new sponsors. Our guests donated raffle prizes. Vernie Tupa won a head cover; Peg Wells won a $25 gift card to Van's; and Karen Wendlandt won a dozen golf balls.

Venetia announced that Ann Chatham became a grandmother during today's round. Ann was proudly showing photos of her grandson Parker to anyone who happened to pass by her table.

Members of the Nominating Committee for the 2019 slate of officers were announced. Yvonne Lecornu is the President's pick, Audrey Costello is the Board's pick, and the membership's picks are Victoria Wareing, Ann Chatham and Geri Sandilands.

Barbara Turriff announced that no one signed up for the next Kachina which is being played on the first day of Quail Classic. Kachina scheduled to be played at Skyline in May has been canceled because of a conflict. The next Kachina will be played in November.

Deanna McCann informed the members that Southern District Del Sud couldn't be played today because it needs to be played on the same course used for March Ace Day. It will be concluded on May Ace Day.

Gail Fosmire who is co-chairing this year's Home & Home & Home with Maggie Falconer reminded the membership that it will be played at SB on May 29th. The signup deadline is May 18th and the cost is $25 for annual members and $60 for non-annual members. It will be an ABCD Stableford tournament. May 8 is the play date at SB Ranch and June 19 is the play date for MountainView. The flyer will be posted shortly.

Sandra Murray awarded two more break pins: Connie Culley received a Break 90 pin for her play on March 6th and Mary Ribacchi received a Break 80 pin for her play on February 13th.

Sandra also mentioned that the color of the SB team shirts had to be changed to Ocean Blue because the manufacturer discontinued Aquamarine/Turquoise. Orders close on April 5th.

Venetia reminded the membership to answer the online survey regarding the 2019 handbook by April 7th.

Pam Brunelle awarded AWGA Hole-in-One certificates to Sally Drennen and Maureen Breheim. She hinted that there were more holes-in-one certificates coming. There were only 3 chip-ins during today's round by Nancy Fuller-Wilson, Sylvia Kastelic, and Eleanor Kehlenbeck. Each got $18.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:40 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Bidwell
